Sponsor a singer

Wellington Young Voices is open to all children, regardless of musical training and experience. We acknowledge that some parents struggle to find the money for the fees we require to cover our operating costs and to assist with this we have a scholarship scheme in place. If you can help by sponsoring a singer for a term, half a year or a full year, please get in touch with our administrator, Judy McKoy: judymckoy@xtra.co.nz.

Wellington Young Voices is a registered charity (CC48918).

All donations to the choir are tax-deductible.

Susie Hardie has conducted children's choirs in France, Canada and New Zealand for over 17 years. She was born in Angola, where her Brazilian parents were missionaries. She has lived in 9 different countries in 5 continents, and speaks several languages. Her extensive experience abroad has given her a passion for music from around the world. Susie is a French and Music teacher at Queen Margaret College, where she conducts two Children's choirs. She is also the assistant musical director to the Hutt Valley Community choir.

Lala Simpson grew up in Madagascar, a country rich in music and dance. From an early age, she was interested in music and the languages of other cultures. Their house was always filled with music from Africa, the small Islands of the Indian Ocean, France (since they were once a French colony) and of course Madagascar. Currently Lala is co-leading the Wellington Children's Community Choir with Julian Raphael, and running the junior choir at Karori West Normal School. She has also worked with students doing their Masters in Music Therapy at the NZSM and has been a guest song-leader at the Hutt Valley Community Choir. Lala also sings with the Wellington Community Choir whose repertoire is predominantly world music.
